Dun's Review of Trade.

NEW YORK, April 9.—Dun's Review tomorrow will say:
Influences favoring business are now more numerous and potent, and there is unmilstakably a trend toward expanding activity.
In certain lines conservatism continues the controlling policy, and thus there is some irregularity, with the aggregate of transactions below producing capacity, trade development naturally being subject to the changes and checks produced by the interpational crists.

MAY WHEAT CONGESTED; STRENGTH REFLECTED

Crop Months Stronger and Higher, With Closing at Best Prices Reached.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHICAGO, April 2 .- May wheat is badly congested. This fact was clearly shown today, when a few shorts attempted to cover outstanding contracts, and were forced to bid the price up from $1.51½ to $80,000,000 of orders for shrapnel and to-day without accomplishing their explosives, received from the Russian is unknown, as it is scattered over several government, which has deposited $20,—ments, the federation's executive constitutions as a mentage to traffic, returned home to-day without accomplishing their arguments, the federation's executive constitutions.

Weekly Cotton Report.

NEW YORK, April 3.—While new high records were established in the cotton market here during the past week, the undertone was nervous and unsettled. Firmness in Liverpool and the large spot sales there seemed to be chiefly responsible for the advances which carried December contracts up to the 19½ clevel in the local market on Tuesday, but Liverpool weakened later in the week, and there was a break here of about 40 points, which, however, was partly recovered during to-day's trading.

The reaction of nearly 32 a bale reflected more or less general realizing or liquidation.

on to-day's late advance that Southern holders were not offering cotton at decliner, while hayers may also have been encouraged by a conviction trat a break below 10c for new crop months would revive earlier ideas of reduced acreage.

New York stocks continue to accumulate, but so far deliveries on contract have been imited, and moderate sales of May have been absorbed at the discount of about 20 points under July.

Bradstreet's Trade Review.
